

İsmet Atalar graduated from the Middle East Technical University Electrical and Electronics Engineering Department in 1979. He received his M.S. degree from the same department in 1983. He began his career in ASELSAN as an Engineer in the R&D Department in 1980. In 1985, he worked as a Design Engineer in the field of computer networks for Christian Rovsing Company in Denmark. He returned to ASELSAN R&D Department in 1986. He was assigned as the Vice Manager of the Control Systems Department in 1989. From 1991 to 2005, he worked as the Systems Engineering Manager in Microwave Systems Technologies Division. He also served as the Leader of the ASELSAN Technology Board from 2004 to 2011. He worked as the Engineering Director of the Defense Systems Technologies Division from 2005 to 2014. He served as a member of the Execution Committee of TÜBİTAK Defense and Security Technologies Research Group SAVTAG from 2006 to 2009. He was appointed Vice President of R&D and Technology Management in 2014. In 2016 he was assigned as Vice President of Technology and Strategy Management. He retired in 2017.